

Game Summary

The game opened with the opponents still confused about the animal nature of their opponents. Halfway through the first period the score was 20-12, in favor of HBW. But the team tired without substitutes and the end of the quarter saw W-L ahead 21-20. Fresh substituting during the second period kept the score from getting any worse than the 4 point deficiency at half-time. The third quarter saw HBW really lag, as the team trailed by ~~21-10~~ 10-12 and 8 at the end of the third quarter. But the substitute team gradually pulled the team closer, the first team kept gaining, the substitutes pulled almost even, and the starting team entered the game just behind with five minutes and five time-outs left. They pulled even, just ahead, fell back to even, trailed, pulled even, lost one point on a foul shot, came one point ~~ahead~~ ahead with only half a minute to go--Victory in sight! But the evil Generals snuck down the court, attempted to suspend Chris Jones against the backboard for trying to shoot while in the halls between classes, and gained a one point lead, with 15 seconds left. What~~x~~ to do???

The coach called time out! A play was designed, the ball was thrown in from the right sideline at half-court, directly along the line. two defenders converged on the~~xxxxxx~~ HBW player. He tried to pass--the passing lanes were blocked--there were 4 seconds left!!!! He threw it back toward the midcourt area--other defenders converged on him. Would this player drive to the basket, travel, panic????There were 2 seconds left!!!!

But wait, he passes the basket across court. There is an open man under the basket! It is John Nicholson, He reaches for the rim, the ball slips off his fingertips, two defenders soar over John, attempt to block the ball, the ball is on the top of the rim THE BUZZER SOUNDS. The ball drops through the net AND THE AUDIENCE GOES WILD---THE PLAYERS DO SO TOO. Justice is preserved. Traditional Education is shown to be inferior to Alternative Schools???

Player Highlights

Chris Jones intercepts a pass, spins round twice, leaves W-L player with wearing apparel ~~x~~ out of place . . . Wayne Logan leaps for the ball, 3 W-L players decide to lie down on the floor, he forces up an offensive rebound--it goes in! Mark Grimm dribbles down the floor, up the floor PASS IT MARK (great shooting in the game--every time he gets it he shoots in the fun overtime). Andy Kastenmeier clogs the middle, battles on the boards, gets the rebound, Makes the shot! Tom Cox goes in for the final quarter--firms up a sagging offense and defense--holds the team together when the coach forgets to put a guard in to bring up the ball. John Votaw presses constantly on defense--really holds his own! Chuck Coleman gets in for the fourth quarter but loses the ball while dribbling up the court (Remember, this coach will even give a player the shirt off his own back). Mike Broder is harried under the boards and along the baseline--they sag the defense on Mike each time but even so he keeps making that quick turn-around jumper from 10 feet. Peter Coffey leaps for the rebound/blocks out the big guy/blocks the shot of the penetrating guard down the lane--hits the outside jumper but is affected by the heavy defense--needs another guard to pass off to (where are the guards? Darrow Liebner plays the baseline, battles for the ball (wasn't he a guard?). Alan Tron hits his unopposed clothes-line jumper, the opponents rush him when he has the ball--who will he pass the ball off to (where are those guards?). Ah Ha--here's the guard. John Nicholson breaks down the court, out-races the opponents, lays up the ball, or rebounds off the offensive board, drives the baseline and throws up the spinning shot (only more spin on Alan's) which drops in! The game is won!

MVP AWARDS: Chris Jones for fast breaks/Wayne Logan for muscle on the boards/ anonymous player for jamming fingers of W-L hot outside shooter/Peter Coffey and Mike Broder for hustle, intensity/W-L player for best vomiting routine to delay game seen for a long time/all the team for doing this in fun, not getting out of hand, and still showing that winning IS everything!

H.B.Woodlawn versus W-L Seniors (and others?) Thursday Night June 7, 1979

FINAL SCORE ----- H.B.Woodlawn 76 W-L 75

Statistical Summary: Taken by Charlotte Mooney

| Player's name    | Rebounds | shots taken | shots made | foul shots taken | fouls made | TOTAL POINTS |
|------------------|----------|-------------|------------|------------------|------------|--------------|
| Mark Grimm       | 1        | 3           | 2          | -                | -          | 4            |
| Alan Tron        | 2        | 8           | 3          | 1                | 1          | 7            |
| Peter Coffey     | 5        | 13          | 4          | 2                | 1          | 9            |
| Mike Broder      | 4        | 11          | 5          | -                | -          | 10           |
| Wayne Logan      | 5        | 11          | 7          | -                | -          | 14           |
| John Nicholson   | 2        | 7           | 5          | -                | -          | 10           |
| Andy Kastenmeier | 4        | 4           | 2          | -                | -          | 4            |
| Chris Jones      | 6        | 10          | 5          | 4                | 4          | 9            |
| Tom Cox          | 2        | 2           | 1          | -                | -          | 2            |
| John Votaw       | -        | -           | -          | -                | -          | -            |
| Darrow Liebner   | -        | -           | -          | -                | -          | -            |
| Chuck Coleman    | -        | -           | -          | -                | -          | -            |

Players in 5th quarter: Edward Kastenmeier, Lizbet White, Ray Anderson, Lori Ball
(Coaches? Ray Anderson, Randy McKnight)

Pregame Summary:

H.B.Woodlawn's only player was announced--# 11, Joe King. The entire team ran onto the court! Unbelievably, they thought they were playing a football game. They all wore T shirts with # 11 and Joe King on them, and various gorilla style masks. They proceeded to engage in "grass drills", bumping shoulders, doing jumping jacks, etc. under the direction of the team captain. The audience was in hysterics; the opposing team couldn't believe it.

Pregame planning: The starting team was Chris Jones, Mike Broder, Peter Coffey Wayne Logan and Alan Tron(chosen by Chris, Mike, Peter, Wayne and Alan). There had been rigorous practices earlier in the week, in which the one play they learned was largely ignored when scrimaging against the aging faculty and older Broder/Coffey's.

Cheerleaders: Lori Ball, Charlotte Mooney, Lizbet White, Shelley Brown, Marni Harker
Cheers: "Joe, Joe, He's our man, If he can't do it no one can." Sink it Joe, Sink It."
"Defense, Defense, Defense, . . ." ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ "Trip him, Joe, Trip him."
(Spelled out:) N E S T L E S: Cram it up your ~~xxx~~ X X X"
"We're Number 1, you're number 2, F _ _ _ Y _ _."